

DISTRICT I CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06

- 1. Is the statement “less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining” valid in today’s agriculture industry?

- 2. In what way do you see the local FFA chapter exerting an influence in your community?

- 3. What are the better things that today’s generation of FFA members enjoy that have come from struggles of previous generations of FFA members?

DISTRICT I CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06
Finals

- 1. Is the statement “less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining” valid in today’s agriculture industry?
- 2. What role does bargaining play in today’s agricultural industry?
- 3. What agricultural associations do you hold an inborn fondness for?

DISTRICT II CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06

- 1. What do you view as the most important contribution of today's generation of agriculturists to the agricultural industry?
- 2. In your opinion what is the difference between an "Agriculturist" and a "Progressive Agriculturist"?
- 3. In your day to day life, who's happiness actually depends upon you?

DISTRICT II CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06
Finals

- 1. How do FFA activities contribute to a member's ability to work efficiently and think clearly?

- 2. What are some of the "other agricultural pursuits" that agriculture education and FFA prepare students for?

- 3. There are thousands of farms in our state. What separates a farm from a good farm?

DISTRICT III CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06

- 1. Define the following passage: “the promise of better days through better ways”.

- 2. What are the better things that today’s generation of FFA members enjoy that have come from struggles of previous generations of FFA members?

- 3. What role does bargaining play in today’s agricultural industry?

DISTRICT III CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06

Finals

- ## 1. What is honest wealth, and how can it be shared with other people?

- 2. How could a local farmer or rancher help maintain traditions of our national life?

- ### 3. How can an FFA member gain the respect of non-FFA members?

DISTRICT IV CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06

- 1. How do think that being and FFA member will contribute to your knowledge and skill development?

- 2. What are the better things that today's FFA members enjoy that have come from struggles of previous generations of FFA members?

- 3. In what ways do you see today's generations of agriculturists holding true to the best generations of our country?

DISTRICT IV CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06
Finals

- 1. How can an FFA member exert an influence within their home?

- 2. How could an agri-business person exert an influence within their local community?

- 3. How can an FFA member gain the respect of non agricultural people within their local community?

DISTRICT V CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06

- 1. How do FFA activities contribute to a member's ability to work efficiently and think clearly?

- 2. What are some of the "other agricultural pursuits" that agriculture education and FFA prepare students for?

- 3. There are thousands of farms in our state. What separates a farm from a good farm?

DISTRICT V CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06
Finals

1. Is the statement “less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining” valid in today’s agriculture industry?

2. Why should the public be the least bit interested in how agricultural producers market the product of their toil?

3. What do you view as the most important contribution of today’s generation of agriculturists to the agricultural industry?

DISTRICT VI CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06

- 1. Is the statement “less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining” valid in today’s agriculture industry?

- 2. In your opinion what is the difference between an “Agriculturist” and a “Progressive Agriculturist”?

- 3. What is the product of a modern agriculturist’s toil?

DISTRICT VI CREED QUESTIONS 2005-06
Finals

- 1. What joys and discomforts would a person working in agriculture experience that a person in another career field would not experience.

- 2. Why should the public be the least bit interested in how agricultural producers market the product of their toil?

- 3. In what ways do you see today's generation of agriculturists holding true to the best generations of our country?